

Weekly News from the Head

Dates for the diary

Dear Parents/carers,

Unfortunately, due to family commitments I was unable to see our choir perform on Saturday at the turning on of the lights. Mrs Mitchell told me they were fantastic and after hearing them practising, I have no doubt that they were. It is great that we have so many children who want to be in the choir and Mrs Mitchell and Mrs Porrett do a fantastic job with them.

Our choir will be performing again at the Carol Service in the church on the 20th December along with the rest of the school so hopefully you can come along and we can all squeeze into the church and listen to some wonderful singing.

Our school wall planners will be on sale after the service for a cost of £2.00.

Another date for your diary is Saturday 15th December. We will be hosting a Christmas Fair from 3pm. Children will have the opportunity to meet Santa and take part in various games and activities. There will be live music and mince pies and mulled wine!

Have a good week
